

now is that the bill be returned so that on page 3, line 24, we strike the word "substantially" and insert the word "unreasonably."

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion? Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Oh, we have reached a new level, haven't we? I think this is okay, in fact, it is probably better than the word "substantially" and I mean it and I have no objections to that.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barrett.

SENATOR BARRETT: A question of Senator Chambers, please. Senator Chambers, if you are changing the word "substantially" to "unreasonably" on line 24, does this not also necessitate a change in other lines in that particular section, specifically line 6? Where the word "substantially" appears, do you not want to change it to "unreasonably" as well in other lines?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, and, Senator DeCamp, would you agree that in this section that we are talking about wherever the word "substantially" appears we would substitute the word "unreasonably?"

SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right. Does the body now understand what the motion is? Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion? Senator Higgins.

SENATOR HIGGINS: A question of Senator Chambers. On this same page 3, you just said let's change every place where it says substantially to unreasonable. Would line 8 then read, "the consumer after an unreasonable number of attempts"?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, we are not changing reasonable, only substantially.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: We want to get the term reasonable into that section so wherever reasonable exists that remains, just the word "substantially".

SENATOR HIGGINS: Okay, thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Goll.

SENATOR GOLL: A question of Senator Chambers. In other words,
